Peter Crummey Unanimously Endorsed By Capital Region Labor Unions

Colonie- Peter Crummey, Candidate for Colonie Town Supervisor, today announced his unanimous endorsement from the Capital Region Labor unions. The Greater Capital Region Building and Construction Trades Council and Laborers Local 190 announced their full endorsement of Peter earlier this week. The Union's represent over 22,000 members in the Capital Region.

"Peter's desire to seek the endorsement of the Building Trades confirms our shared values and his commitment to the prosperity of our members, the welfare of working families and the vitality of our communities." said Michael Lyons, President of the Greater Capital Region Building and Construction Trades Council.

"I am honored to have earned the support of our local labor unions. Labor is the backbone of our community. It is important, now more than ever during this pandemic, that our hard working families receive the support that they so rightly deserve. I look forward to continue working together on issues of common interest," said Peter Crummey.

Peter Crummey is a lifetime resident of the Town of Colonie, with over 41 years of service to the town. He stepped down from his position as Town Judge earlier this year to run for Town Supervisor. He is focused on increasing the quality of life in the Town of Colonie.
